LPS SENIOR HOUSE SWIMMING SPORTS

Last Friday, the 35th Annual House Swimming Carnival took place on a lovely sunny day in Mirboo North. Over 300 students attended from Grade 3 to 6 and competed in at least 2 events. Students were well behaved throughout the day and were seen cheering on fellow House team mates all day. In the end, Wightman ran away with the win for the 7th year in a row. The Age Champions were Mia Deenen, Jesse Helms, Xavier Bolge, Gabby Perry, Nicolette Wight, Rem Dal Pozzo, Jhett Brown and Isaac Bolge. Well done to all students for having a go and doing their best for their House. Thank you to all staff for doing a great job throughout the day to make the day fun for the students. Lastly, a big thank you to all parents that helped on the day. The carnival cannot run without parents volunteering to time races, put caps on or set up and pack up the House shelters

Wightman House Captains – Cody Quinlan, Jesse Burns, Emma Trease, Mia Deenen

Age Champions - Mia Deenen, Jesse Helms, Xavier Bolge, Nicolette Wight, Rem Dal Pozzo, Gabby Perry, Jhett Brown and Isaac Bolge.
Family Conferences

One method of building strong family ties is the family conference. Let me explain how it works.

When our children were aged between 6 and 10 we held family conferences. They weren’t scheduled events and could be requested by any family member – adult or child. Once a time for the conference had been established everyone was asked for agenda items. Invariably the children wanted pocket money and bedtimes included.

These conferences continued throughout all of their growing years until they left home. Topics included employment changes, school results, moving house, clothing allowances, household chores as well as bedtimes and pocket money.

We believe we gained the following benefits:

- An atmosphere where anything could be discussed without pointing the finger at anyone else
- An increased vocabulary and also greater understanding of other people’s point of view [seek first to understand and then be understood].
- A ready-made opportunity to offer praise and encouragement.

These times became fun and precious. We could take the opportunity to encourage them both individually and collectively, to discuss their dreams and goals [even at the youngest age] and to hold them accountable to what they wanted to do etc.

Why not think through holding your own family conference? Here could be a good agenda topic: family conferences!

From the outset involve the whole family in the concept, allow full freedom of speech and ideas then even the youngest child can feel valued [even more so if they are old enough to speak].

Use this tool as a source of motivation for everyone in the family – even yourself.

SNAP SHOT WRITING from 5G

Crassssssssh! It sounded like a flash of lightning. I was struggling to breathe, my heart racing, my feet kicking like a scuba diver swimming away from a shark. The waves covering me like a blanket, I knew I was about to drown.

Tahlia Arnason 5G

The baby had an ear piercing scream that could make someone deaf. The baby had red puffy eyes as if she’d been crying for days, weeks and months. She was banging her head against the wall she started to shake for a second it was silent as if the world died. The silence went on and on and on then it stopped as if someone just pressed play. She was reaching for her teddy but it was just out of reach. She started to cry again but a bit softer you could feel her getting tired. You knew she was longing for the feel of freedom.
